

“A Story About the Compassionate Provider” (Mark 6:31–44)

Martell Sánchez | April 2, 2023

LOOK AT WHAT OUR COMPASSIONATE JESUS PROVIDES!

1. He provides _____.
2. He provides _____.
3. He provides _____.

THE POINT: God is a compassionate _____; we can be fully _____ in him if we seek him.

TURNING TO OUR PROVIDER TODAY

1. Seek the _____, not the _____.
2. Learn to be _____ and _____.
3. Give the _____ you _____; _____ can become _____ with Jesus!

1. What good things did Jesus provide in Sunday’s text? What are examples of other good things he provides? Is there anything else he provides—or allows—in our lives that don’t seem good on the surface, but actually are good for us? How do these good provisions influence the way you approach and respond to Jesus?
2. How can we meet the physical needs of people without turning our ministry into a “social gospel”? How can we advance the gospel of salvation without neglecting the physical needs of people? How is the crowd’s response a warning for us (John 6:26-27)?
3. Of the three ways Martell mentioned we can turn to our loving Provider, which one comes easiest to you? Which one is most challenging to you? What steps can you take to grow in the area that most challenges you?
