

“An Early Easter Story” (Mark 5:21-43)

Marttel Sánchez | March 5, 2023

WHAT WE’VE LEARNED SO FAR

→ Jesus has _____ over _____ and _____ of _____.

WHAT WE’RE LEARNING TODAY

→ Jesus has _____ over incurable _____ and _____.

FINDING OUR PLACE IN THE STORY

1. No one is _____ that they don’t _____ Jesus, or _____ that Jesus doesn’t _____ about them.
2. Sometimes, only _____ leads us to Jesus, and that’s okay.
3. God is never _____ for one of his little _____...
4. And this encourages us to _____.

1. Do you know anyone who came to Jesus in desperation, convinced he was the only one who could help? Have you ever felt that way?
2. In what ways are Jairus and the unnamed woman similar? In what ways are they different? What does this teach you about the care and compassion of Christ? About how Christ responds?
3. Jesus commended the imperfect faith of the woman. How does this encourage you in your own relationship with Jesus? How can we be more encouraging of spiritual “infants” in our churches without condoning unbiblical ideas?
4. Are you willing to be interrupted? If you’re busy doing something, or even busy helping someone, would you still take the time to help another who is in need? How would you prioritize?
5. This week’s stories remind us that no person and no situation are beyond Jesus’ ability to restore. How do you sense God is leading you to respond to this truth?
